

QUAINT LITTLE APRON FOR CHILLY FINGERS

BY BETTY BROWN

We have cuff-muffs, pocket-muffs, and ankle-muffs, all of them designed to take the "freeze out of frost," but lest somebody's fingers be nipped by the cold kindly Dame Fashion has invented the apron-muff.

No, it's not to be worn 'round the kitchen o' mornings, it belongs exclusively to "high society."

Mrs. Alla Ripley of the Fashion Art League of America—noted for her unusual fashion creations—designed the new muff. It is part of a luxurious evening coat of brocaded silver cloth with cape of black and white polar bear fur. A deep girdle of black velvet is drawn into voluminous loops in front to form a comfortable muff.

—o—o— MOVIE STARS

Alice Hollister

Alice Hollister, Kalem star, besides being a movie actress, writes for magazines. At present she is at present she is at work on a series for a leading magazine, dealing with the subject of moving pictures. Miss Hollister, during her school days, took a number of prizes for essays and stories.

A WARNING

"Boots for women." Girls, don't wear them; they will destroy the view of those pretty silk hose.—Gainesville, Ga., Register.